

Iddi Saaka

An exciting interactive performance of dance, music and storytelling that educates audiences about the rich culture of Ghana.

Iddi Saaka, a native of Ghana, is a versatile and award-winning West African dance and music performance artist and teacher who specializes in Ghanaian dance and music forms as well as contemporary dance. Saaka holds a Diploma (with distinction) in Dance from the University of Ghana and an MFA in Dance from University of California, Los Angeles. He has performed and taught nationally and internationally in many distinguished venues.

"Thank you so much for an awesome show and answering all the questions for the kids."

Chantelle Browne - Flanders Elementary School, Southington