

Alicia Cobb

Visual artist and teaching artist serving all of Connecticut.

Alicia C. Cobb is a professional visual artist, muralist, fine body painter, and teaching artist, currently residing and working in Bridgeport, CT. Her biggest inspirations are transformation, the human body, emotion, nature and her children. Her works can be found on many surfaces: canvas, walls, clothing and people. She has been a resident artist and participating artist in public art exhibits throughout Fairfield county since 2015.